An Unequaled Display

of inexpensive office requisites. Copying books, all sizes and thicknesses, imported and American makes. These goods represent the best lines made, and we offer them to you at our usual low price, cash or credit.

Blank Books—Our larger blank books being made to order, we claim superiority over all others, both in workmanship and price. We have them all sizes, rulings and bindings and invite you to give this department a passing glance.

Typewriter Supplies—Ribbons for Remington, Calligraph and Hammond machines, all colors. Typewriter papers, erasers and oil. Our prices on these are a little under manufacturers' prices. Call and see what we offer before buying.

Fountain Pens—When you buy a pen you want a good one. We have our regular $2.50 pen marked down to $1.75. This is an unusual offer and an opportunity is afforded all to supply themselves. We have a large stock and are ordering several times a week, so there will be no old stock to select from.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

Mrs. Chas. E. Graves is seriously ill at her residence, No. 19 Seventh avenue southwest.

Joseph Lux, late of the New York bar, and father of Mrs. Chas. E. Graves, is visiting his daughter and will in all probability make Roanoke his future home.

Jos. B. Woodward, brother of S. M. Woodward, of this city, and W. L. McMerle, both of Staunton, who have been in this city since Wednesday on a business trip, returned home yesterday.

James Rider, for many years a moulder at the Roanoke Machine Works, left yesterday for Newport News, to take charge of a foundry at that place.

Col. W. B. Shelor, who has been very ill at the residence of his son, is improving, but is not yet able to be out.

Miss Louella Stump, of Augusta county, is visiting her sister, Mrs. George Carr, on Third street northwest.

Miss Julia Pilcher, of Petersburg, but who is now attending school at Hollins Institute, came to Roanoke last evening and will spend to-day and to-morrow with the family of Rev. R. R. Acree.

John Kuhn left last night for Hagerstown, where he will spend a week or ten days with relatives.

A. C. Ryerson, of Baltimore, is in the city on a business trip.

William Sours, an old employee of the Machine Works, is lying critically ill at his residence on Fifth avenue northeast, with the grip.

The foundry department of the Machine Works yesterday received fifteen improved wheel chills, to be used in the manufacture of wheels.

H. C. Wiggan, of New York, and Geo. W. Osind, of Louisville, Ky., are in the city.

J. W. Hancock and J. B. Ferguson will start on a bicycle trip to Lexington to-morrow.

Edw. Harris, of Baltimore, and Capt. Ridgeway Holt, of Yellow Sulphur Springs, are in the city for a few days.

Do You know anything about an organ? Of course you don't, or, at any rate, not much. This is what nearly all purchasers say. Then why buy an instrument not thoroughly known? The Estey is the best known and stands higher than any organ in the market. Factory prices and easy payments guaranteed by Hobbie Music Company, sole dealers, 157 Salem avenue, Roanoke.

VINTON

Mrs. Wm. Turner, who lives a few miles east of Vinton, is very ill. Her husband, who is engaged in business at Blue Ridge Mines, was summoned to her bedside early yesterday morning.

Col. Huger, superintendent of transportation of the Norfolk and Western railroad, was in town Thursday evening, and expressed himself as surprised at Vinton's growth since his last visit.

Moses P. Preston is visiting his brother in the western part of the county, above Salem.

Col. John R. Richardson and County Treasurer George M. Muse spent Wednesday and Thursday in the mountains of Bedford, with a large pack of hounds, hunting foxes.

W. Wright, a prominent farmer from the neighborhood of Stewartville, was in Vinton yesterday.

Miss M. E. Sale entertained a number of her friends at her residence Thursday evening. Among her guests were Mrs. Geo. McH. Gish and daughter, of Roanoke, and Miss Harris, of Floyd.

Capt. W. C. Bass, of Buena Vista, is visiting here.

Bradley Howell was called home from Alderson, W. Va., where he is temporarily engaged in work, a few days ago, because of the sickness of his wife. At this writing she is better and he expects to return in a short time.

Ola, the little daughter of L. D. Bell, is quite sick with measles.

J. W. Stephens has received a present of a barrel of delicious oranges from Florida.

The Woman's Missionary Society met Thursday afternoon at the residence of Dr. G. T. Walker. A good many ladies were present.

Mrs. W. A. Saunders is visiting friends at Blue Ridge Springs.

Mr. and Mrs. D. McLean, who have been on a visit for a week past to the family of Rev. V. M. Wheeler, at Glen Wilton, returned to Vinton last night.

Meeting of the Juniors.
The members of the Junior Hose Fire department held a meeting last night and elected Walter Boone and W. S. Phelps active members.

Have You Ever Used
OLEOMARGARINE?

Or, if you prefer, call it Butterine.

Now, don't say, "No, I never have," and then add, "I never will," when, perhaps, in your travels, while stopping at some swell hotel, you have eaten Oleomargarine and pronounced it the finest butter you had ever tasted. We just respectfully ask you not to allow prejudice to keep you from examining it, but come in and see for yourself. Respectfully,

Great February Forced Sale!

Of Well Ready Made Clothing Now Going On At

The K. & S.,
RELIABLE CLOTHIERS,
No. 40 Salem Avenue.

WE HAVE taken inventory of our stock and find a third the amount of stock we feel satisfied in carrying; although our fall trade has been very satisfactory we feel that we are overstocked.

In view of the fact that there are only a few weeks remaining before the close of the season we have determined upon a Gigantic Forced Sale in order to unload our immense stock and to make room for our large stock of spring goods which are rolling in daily.

Bear in mind this is not a sale of odds and ends, but a bona fide Sacrificed Sale conducted by a Reliable Clothing House. We wish to draw your attention to our
